

John Brown University

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

2025 – 2026

The committees of John Brown University are vital in assisting the University to achieve its mission. Thank you for serving and giving your expertise to the committee work of John Brown University.

- I. The committee chairperson is responsible for convening and ensuring the work of the committee is done by
 - A. Arranging time and meeting location,
 - B. Planning the agenda, and
 - C. Selecting a secretary.
- II. The committee secretary is responsible for
 - A. Recording minutes of each meeting,
 - B. Listing names in minutes of present and absent committee members, and
 - C. Distributing minutes to committee members and responsible administrators including the President and the Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- III. The committee member is responsible for
 - A. Attending meeting prepared to participate in proceedings,
 - B. Submitting agenda items to chairperson, and
 - C. Informing the chairperson when absence is anticipated.

"The duties of the chairman shall be to . . . appoint all faculty committees except those elected by the faculty . . ." (from the Faculty Constitution). The following committees and committee assignments are authorized by the President. The President and Vice President for Academic Affairs are ex officio members of all standing or ad hoc John Brown University committees.

This document lists committees that are more institutional in nature and is not intended to include all committees that may exist at JBU. Committees created at the discretion of colleges, departments, or offices will generally not be included in this document. Search committees will also not be included.

Committee assignments are made over the summer for the following academic year. Elections for faculty elected committees take place in April at the last Faculty Meeting of the year. Faculty members are nominated through the colleges. Faculty should let college deans know if they are interested in being nominated. Changes to committee assignments may occur during the academic year, but the published version of this document will typically not be updated to reflect those changes.

I. FACULTY ELECTED COMMITTEES

CORE CURRICULUM COMMITTEE (Three-Year, Staggered Terms)

Lou Cha (2 years, at-large), Louise Cole (3 years, at-large), Suzanna Guizar (3 years), Robert Moore (1 year), Kimberly Murie (2 years), Randall Waldron (1 year), and Trisha Posey (chair). Emily Burney and an SGA appointee are non-voting members.

Each of the four colleges elects one member from within the college. Two additional at-large members are elected from the full faculty. The Dean of Undergraduate Studies chairs the committee. The Associate Registrar for Undergraduate Students and an SGA representative are non-voting members.

This committee is responsible for the oversight of the traditional undergraduate core curriculum. The committee determines that the general education outcomes are appropriately assigned to the courses in the core curriculum and that the course syllabi constructed by the instructors demonstrate that these outcomes are being addressed. Course alternatives and exceptions to the curriculum will be recommended by this committee. The committee is responsible for the on-going assessment of the effectiveness of the core curriculum. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

DEANS COUNCIL

Brad Gatlin, Ken Hahn, Emily Moore, Melanie Peddicord, Trisha Posey, Miguel Rivera, Ted Song, Jacob Stratman, Becky Weimer, and Robert Norwood (chair).

Members are the college deans, chair and chair-elect of the Faculty Affairs Committee, Dean of Academic Services, Dean of Undergraduate Studies, Dean of Innovation and Curriculum, and the Vice President for Academic Affairs (chair).

The council is responsible for the establishment of academic standards and policies affecting the academic programs. Reports to the President.

FACULTY AFFAIRS COMMITTEE (Three-Year, Staggered Terms)

Kyle Agee (1 year), Nick Cornett (2 years), Kim Murie (1 year, at-large), John Lee (2 years), Hepsiba Vivenkanandan (1 year), Joe Walenciak (3 years), Melanie Peddicord (chair-elect, 2 years), and Miguel Rivera (chair, 3 years).

Each of the four colleges elects two members from within the college. One additional at-large member is elected from the full faculty. The committee elects two co-chairs to one-year terms, with the co-chairs coming from different colleges. The co-chairs serve on the Deans Council.

This committee serves to facilitate communication between the faculty and the administration. Any professor or administrator may bring concerns or questions to committee members, who will then use the Faculty Affairs Committee Surveys or the Faculty Climate Survey to determine the facts and assess faculty opinion. Those results will then be disseminated and discussed through the appropriate channels. The chair and chair-elect are responsible for organizing and chairing meetings as needed and serving on the Deans Council. Some of these meetings will include available members of the President's cabinet and academic deans, for the purpose of discussing issues of importance to the faculty, and the other meetings are to be faculty only.

The JBU Strategic Plan affirms the institutional desire to reflect the diversity of God's kingdom by increasing the diversity of JBU's faculty, staff, and students. The Faculty Affairs Committee actively seeks to manifest this desire through committee member representation and in its representation of faculty to the Deans Council.

These elected representatives also serve as representatives of the faculty at the committee meetings of the JBU Board of Trustees at their regular on-campus meetings in October and April. The co-chairs will be invited to other trustee meetings and functions as warranted. Reports to the President.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE (Three-Year, Staggered Terms)

Lisa Auten (2 years), Jade Choppala (1 year), Benjamin Okai (1 year), Shanon Vuglar (3 years), Linda Vytlačil (2 years), Josiah Wallace (1 year), Angie Wang (2 years), Jamie Collins (associate director), and Aminta Arrington (director and chair).

Each of the four colleges elects two members from within the college. The director of faculty development chairs the committee.

JBU Faculty Development works to provide opportunities for faculty to gather in community to learn from one another and to learn from diverse perspectives, and in accordance with JBU's Head, Heart and Hand philosophy, supports our faculty in the areas of scholarship, spiritual growth and modeling, and teaching excellence in the classroom. The Faculty Development Committee supports this mission by overseeing the disbursement of faculty development grant funds, selecting recipients for competitive grant programs, suggesting faculty development events, giving input into the Fall Faculty Workshop, and providing general advice on all aspects of faculty development. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

FACULTY STATUS COMMITTEE (Three-Year, Staggered Terms)

Rick Faust (1 year), Rick Froman (1 year), Tim Gilmour (1 year), Amanda Himes (2 years), Keith Jagger, Emily Moore (1 year), Melanie Peddicord (3 years), Jacob Stratman (3 years), Greg Varner (2 years), and Daniel Bennett (chair, 2 years).

Each of the four colleges elects two members from within the college. The chair of the committee is a faculty member appointed by the president from a slate nominated by the faculty. Faculty committee members must have at least Associate Professor rank and have at least five years of service at JBU. The university chaplain is also on the committee.

This advisory committee interviews all faculty-level employee candidates to help assess a candidate's faith commitment and to ensure an appropriate institutional fit. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

II. COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

ADMISSIONS AND FINANCIAL AID COMMITTEE

Frank Blume, Hannah Bradford, David Burney, Robyn Daugherty, Jarrod Heathcote, Jonathan Himes, Kyle Ireland, Trisha Posey, Rob Rostoni, Kevin Simpson, Becky Weimer, SGA appointee, and Ryan Ladner (chair).

This committee reviews and approves traditional undergraduate admissions and financial aid policies and procedures. It acts, whether by subcommittee or as a whole committee, on any student petition for admission or aid consideration. This committee reviews and approves recommendations for competitive academic scholarships. Reports to the President.

ALL-CAMPUS JUDICIARY

Sam Heinrich, Eve Jagger, Kathleen Paulsen, Greg Varner, SGA appointees, Online Undergraduate Student Appointee (as needed), Graduate Student Appointee (as needed), and Anne Tohme (chair).

This committee hears student appeals to disciplinary cases. The committee will hear disciplinary rationale presented by Student Development staff and the student's appeal. The committee will then provide a recommendation concerning appropriate action to the Vice President of Student Development. In addition, committee members may be asked to be present during disciplinary meetings. Those members present in student disciplinary meetings will not attend an appeal. Reports to the President.

ARCHIVES COMMITTEE

Amy Fisher, Julie Gumm, Jennifer Heathcote, Nikki Rader, Skylar Ray, and Jake Posey (chair).

This committee advises the University Archives. The committee guides selection, appraisal, accessioning, storage, and preservation policy. The committee also advises on uses for the archives including, but not limited to, the following: research requests, special events, special exhibits, and loans to other institutions. Reports to the Dean of Academic Services and Registrar and to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE

Chris Dinwiddie, Rick Froman, Brad Gatlin, Sam Heinrich, Neal Holland, Robert Norwood, Hannah Pilcher, Trisha Posey, Justus Selwyn, Ted Song, Greg Varner, and Lynette Duncan (chair).

This committee consists of a few faculty members from each college, the HLC accreditation liaison officer, the Dean of Innovation and Curriculum, the Dean of Undergraduate Studies, and the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and is chaired by the Director of Assessment.

This committee oversees all institutional and program-level assessments in use at JBU. This committee recommends a master assessment plan, shares comprehensive results with the university community, and recommends appropriate action based upon that information. The committee also provides feedback on program reviews and organizes the Assessment Summit. Reports to the President.

CHEMICAL HYGIENE COMMITTEE

Bob Arthur, Steve Brankle, Robyn Daugherty, Rick Faust, Amy Fisher, Kim Hadley, Neal Holland, John Lee, Susan Newton, Robert Norwood, Greg Robinson, Natasha Trotter, Lori Tugwell, Scott Wanzer, and Tricia Hahn (chair).

This committee meets at least annually to update Emergency Responder Summaries, Risk Assessments, and Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) in their respective areas. The committee assists in reviewing and approving annual updates to the JBU Chemical Hygiene Plan, as well as other OSHA and EPA required plans and programs. The committee provides help and guidance to the Chemical Hygiene Officer as needed. Reports to the Chief Operating Officer.

CHEMICAL SAFETY COMMITTEE

Bob Arthur, Neal Holland, Susan Newton, Angie Wang, Student Representative, and Tricia Hahn (chair).

This committee maintains compliance with JBU's CHP in their respective areas as well as chemical inventories, regular inspections of their areas, waste stream determinations, and investigation of accidents and near misses. The committee discusses chemical safety questions and concerns for their respective spaces and also makes recommendations for future updates to JBU's Chemical Hygiene Plan. Reports to the Chief Operating Officer.

COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE

Michelle Baker, Corey Carey, Lynnette Duncan, Amy Fisher, Robert Norwood, Tom Perry, Scott Wanzer, and David Burney (chair).

This committee coordinates all compliance related regulations and issues. Reports to the Chief Operating Officer.

CRISIS PREPAREDNESS COMMITTEE

Steve Brankle, Corey Carey, Amy Fisher, Julie Gumm, Emily Moore, David Newton, Abby Suitt, Lori Tugwell, and Scott Wanzer (chair).

This committee is responsible for assessing institution wide risks and giving recommendations for organizing resources, policies and procedures in order to maximize institutional readiness and reduce negative impacts. The type of institutional threat/preparation that will be focused on are mainly types of natural disasters (tornado, severe weather, etc.). The committee is a sub-committee of the University Crisis Response Team. Reports to the Vice President for Student Development, Facilities, and Athletics.

DIVERSITY COMMITTEE

Claire Carriere (1 year), Amy Fisher, Julie Gumm, Marcos Gutierrez Angulo (3 years), Ivan Iglesias (1 year), Eve Jagger (3 years), Anita Martin (1 year), Kathleen Paulsen (3 years), Nikki Rader (3 years), Kelvin Tohme (3 years), SGA appointee, and Ted Song (chair).

This committee assesses the current campus environment and sets realistic short- and long-term goals to increase the diversity of JBU's faculty, staff, and students in ways that more fully reflect the diversity of God's kingdom. Permanent members include the Chief Intercultural Engagement Officer, Chief Human Resources Officer, and Chief Marketing and Communications Officer. Other members serve three-year renewable terms and include representatives from Athletics, Enrollment Management, Student Development, Advancement, and faculty from each of the four colleges. Reports to the President.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS COMMITTEE

Javier Aguilar, Michelle Baker, Darla Bearden, Baronger Bieger, Hannah Bradford, Steve Brankle, Corey Carey, Kirk Demarais, Melanie Kennedy, Tiffany Lopez, Emily Moore, Paul Nast, Michelle Sumner, and Amy Fisher (chair). Kim Hadley is a non-voting member.

This committee monitors employee benefit plans by periodically reviewing reports and information related to these plans by gathering input from employees, agents involved, and outside research; and by making policy recommendations with regard to employee benefit plans subject to the advice of appropriate consultants and final review by the President. Reports to the President.

GATEWAY COMMITTEE

Chris Dinwiddie, Jill Ellenbarger, Sarah Erdman, Nicole Iman, Trisha Posey, Rob Rostoni, Jacob Stratman, Becky Weimer, and Louise Cole (chair).

This committee oversees the content of the Gateway seminars, ensuring consistency and assessing. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

GRADUATE AND ONLINE ADMISSIONS COMMITTEE

Rick Froman, Hollie Gumm, Tiffany Lopez, Jonathan Newton, Melanie Peddicord, Eric Suddeath, and Vergi Scott (chair).

This committee acts by subcommittee on any student application for admission to a graduate or online program referred by a department chair. Sub-committees are composed of four people: the department chair, a faculty member from the department or a faculty member from a related discipline (selected by the department chair), the Associate Registrar for Graduate and Online Undergraduate, and the Director of Graduate and Online Enrollment (who chairs the sub-committees). Reports to the Chief Operating Officer.

GRADUATE SCHOLASTIC APPEALS COMMITTEE

Hollie Gumm, Jonathan Newton, Robert Norwood, Melanie Peddicord, Eric Suddeath, Becky Weimer, and Tiffany Lopez (chair).

This committee acts by subcommittee on any student appeal to a suspension or probation decision. Sub-committees are composed of four people: the department chair, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Dean of Academic Services, and the Associate Registrar for Graduate and Online Undergraduate. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

HEALTH PROFESSIONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Baronger Bieger, Suzanna Guizar, Tricia Hahn, Michelle Kim, Angie Wang, and Tim Wakefield (chair).

This committee is responsible for setting policies and overseeing the advising and preparation of students who are interested in applying to health-related professional schools for training as a physician, dentist, optometrist, veterinarian, or a career in one of the allied health professions, such as physician assistant, physical therapy, and occupational therapy, among others. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

HONORS SCHOLARS COMMITTEE

Sierra Brand, Emily Burney, John Lee, Rachel Maxson, Jacob Stratman, Randall Waldron, Honors Executive Council President, Honors Executive Council Vice President, and Ryan Butler (chair).

This committee gives leadership to the honors program. Curriculum modifications that exceed the general education guidelines require faculty approval. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

INSTITUTIONAL ANIMAL CARE AND USE COMMITTEE

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (Dan Ahnen), community representative (Cathy Flack), Hepsiba Vivenkanandan, and Angie Wang (chair).

The IACUC provides oversight on student and faculty research that involves animal subjects. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD

Chris Dinwiddie, Rebecca Gunn, Angie Wang, and Daniel Bennett (chair).

The IRB provides oversight on student and faculty research that involves human participants. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS COMMITTEE

Steve Brankle, Hope Cureton, Avere Deck, Frank Huebert, Melissa Stevenson, and Anne Tohme (chair).

This committee is responsible for granting approval and providing guidance for all international mission trips involving JBU students (excluding academic or study-abroad programs). The committee sets policy, reviews and approves trip applications, and offers direction and support to JBU faculty and staff leading these trips. In addition, the committee helps vet and assess partner organizations to ensure alignment with JBU's mission and values. It also serves as a resource for those interested in leading international mission trips. The committee meets three times per year to review trip applications and convenes additionally as needed to fulfill its responsibilities. Reports to the President.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS COMMITTEE

Paul Bulgin, David Burney, Jade Choppala, Meaghan Ellenburg, Trisha Posey, Bill Stevenson, Melissa Stevenson, Joe Walenciak, Becky Weimer, and Greg Robinson (chair).

This committee advises and assists the Dean of Undergraduate Studies and the Director of the International Office in the development, implementation and on-going evaluation of off-campus programs. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

ONLINE UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLASTIC APPEALS COMMITTEE

Rick Froman, Melanie Peddicord, Trisha Posey, Becky Weimer, and Tiffany Lopez (chair).

This committee acts by subcommittee on any student appeal to a suspension or probation decision. Sub-committees are composed of four people: the department chair, the Dean of Undergraduate Studies, the Dean of Academic Services, and the Associate Registrar for Graduate and Online Undergraduate. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

PEER EVALUATION REVIEW COMMITTEE

Chris Dinwiddie, Gerald Reimer, Shanon Vuglar, and Liesl Dromi (chair).

The Peer Evaluation Committee carries out the peer review component of the Systematic Evaluation of full-time faculty members. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SCHOOLS ADVISORY COMMITTEE (PDSAC)

This committee contains representatives from the John Brown University and the Siloam Springs School District administration; all JBU department of teacher education faculty members (Jamie Collins, Neil Entwistle, Hollie Gumm, Kimberly Murie, Spencer Patterson); the Dean of the College of Education and Social and Behavioral Sciences (Emily Moore); all Siloam Springs Public Schools building principals; district supervisors; representatives from each school building (PDS Facilitators); JBU Arts & Science faculty (Liesl Dromi, Jonathan Himes, Robert Moore, Justus Selwyn); four JBU student representatives; and two community representatives. This committee is chaired by the PDS Site Director (Spencer Patterson).

The sub-committees (Department of Teacher Education & the PDS Facilitators) take the initiative in all matters pertaining to teacher education: criteria for admission to the program and internship, regulations, assessments, changes in professional courses, program additions, and changes in program components. The PDS Advisory Committee critiques and confirms any of the above components that are to be established. The PDS Advisory Committee recommends changes and the sub-committees develop the recommendations for the Committee to critique and approve. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

SCHOLASTIC PETITIONS COMMITTEE

Ivan Iglesias, Kyle Ireland, Kathleen Paulsen, Rob Rostoni, Kevin Simpson, Melissa Stevenson, and Becky Weimer (chair).

This committee deals with students whose academic records are substandard or marginal. This committee recommends continued enrollment or termination for students with poor records and may recommend changes in the criteria it uses. These recommendations are presented to the appropriate dean before official actions are taken. Records of its actions and its minutes will appear in the respective student's file. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Ian Albright, Hannah Bradford, Maxie Burch, Seung-Won Cho, Candace Coker, Geoff Reddick, Greg Robinson, Steve Snediker, Shanon Vuglar, SGA and SMLT appointees, and Keith Jagger (chair). Anne Tohme is a non-voting member.

This committee serves as an advisory and evaluation group for chapel and other spiritual life events and concerns. Reports to the President.

STUDENT SUCCESS AND RETENTION COMMITTEE

Hannah Bradford, David Burney, Corey Carey, Hope Cureton, Marcos Gutierrez Angulo, Eve Oh, Trisha Posey, Rob Rostoni, Taylor Vanlandingham, male R.A., female R.A., Student Support Services Representative, and Becky Weimer (chair). Anne Tohme is a non-voting member.

This committee is concerned with the various transitions that students experience as freshmen and transfer students and those they experience as they progress toward graduation. Programs and interventions that are supportive in these transitions are considered and recommended for implementation. This committee seeks to improve student success and retention. The committee functions in an advisory capacity to the President and Vice President for Academic Affairs. Reports to the President.

STUDENT SUCCESS TEAM

Emily Burney, Jon Claborn, Jill Ellenbarger, Marcos Gutierrez Angulo, Jarrod Heathcote, Kyle Ireland, Eve Jagger, Bradonia Napier, Rachel Robison, Seth Sears, Joe Walenciak, and Rob Rostoni (chair).

This committee discusses specific students for whom there has been a concern raised by faculty or staff through the early alert process. The committee is a retention effort as members attempt to identify concerning students early and develop a plan of action that includes finding someone to intentionally intervene in the student's life in a supportive role. Reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

TITLE IX TEAM

David Burney, Corey Carey (assistant coordinator), Robyn Daugherty, Amy Fisher (coordinator), Kim Hadley (appeal hearing officer), Kyle Ireland, Eve Jagger, Melanie Kennedy (hearing officer), Tiffany Lopez (hearing officer), Eleanor Mallow, Emily Moore, Paul Nast (hearing officer), Robert Norwood (appeal hearing officer), Jake Posey, Trisha Posey, Miguel Rivera, Bill Stevenson, Melissa Stevenson, Ted Song, Jacob Stratman, Anne Tohme (assistant coordinator), Joe Walenciak, Scott Wanzer, Becky Weimer.

JBU is mandated by federal regulations in our response to claims of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and retaliation. The Title IX Committee is chaired by the Title IX Coordinator and includes hearing officers, investigators and hearing panelists. Investigators are the person or persons charged by JBU with gathering facts about an alleged violation of the policy, assessing relevance and credibility, synthesizing the evidence, and compiling this information into an investigation report and file of directly related evidence. Hearing Officer(s) refers to those who have decision-making and sanctioning authority within the policy. Hearing panelists serve alongside the Hearing Officer to determine the outcome of formal complaints.

UNIVERSITY CRISIS RESPONSE TEAM

Steve Brankle, Corey Carey, Amy Fisher, Kim Hadley, Tricia Hahn, Carter Henson, Keith Jagger, Emily Moore, Robert Norwood, Abby Suitt, Lori Tugwell, Scott Wanzer, Julie Gumm (co-chair), Paul Nast (co-chair), and Anne Tohme (co-chair).

This committee is responsible for directing institutional resources and directing or assisting university personnel in managing institutional crisis situations. Members are representatives from across campus and have authority to actively direct an institutional first response. This committee works in close concert with the Crisis Preparedness Committee. Reports to the President.
